ABOUT THE PLATS

This has been an effort to make a record of the first owners of the lands in Howell County available in a more compact form than the unwieldy Plat Book Number 1 which resides in the Court House. It was necessary to divide the townships into four sections of nine square miles each, except for the fractional townships at the Arkansas border. Also it was necessary to add an extension onto the elongated sections in the southwest corner of the county adjoining Ozark County. As can be readily observed, no serious effort was made to duplicate the slant of the section lines in that southwest corner. However, the amount of land should remain reasonably accurate. Section 16 in each township was set aside for the benefit of local schools through the sale of the land. Smaller parcels can be found in the fractional townships. Likewise the areas marked "A.C." were designated for the benefit of the Agricultural College. Arrows at the edge of a plat indicate more land adjoins that tract on another page.

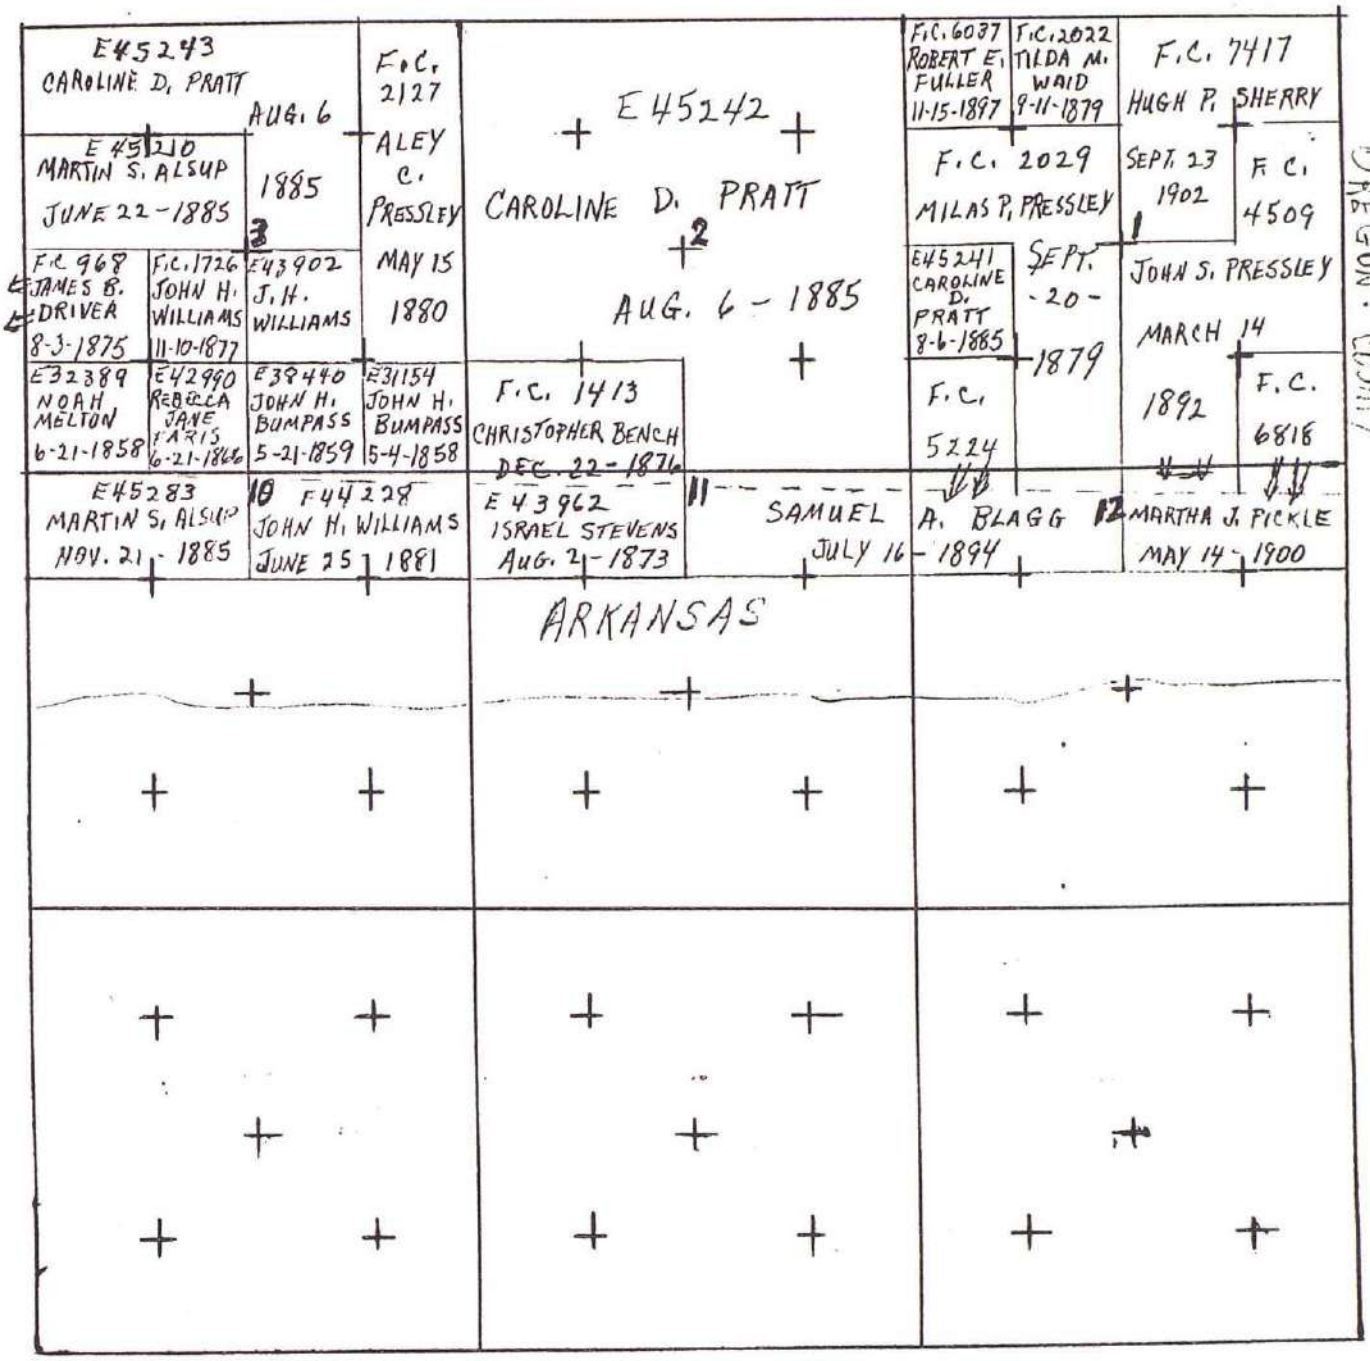

Although it is not a thing of beauty, here's hoping this plat reproduction will make a search for the earliest land owners a bit easier.

ABOUT THE INDEX

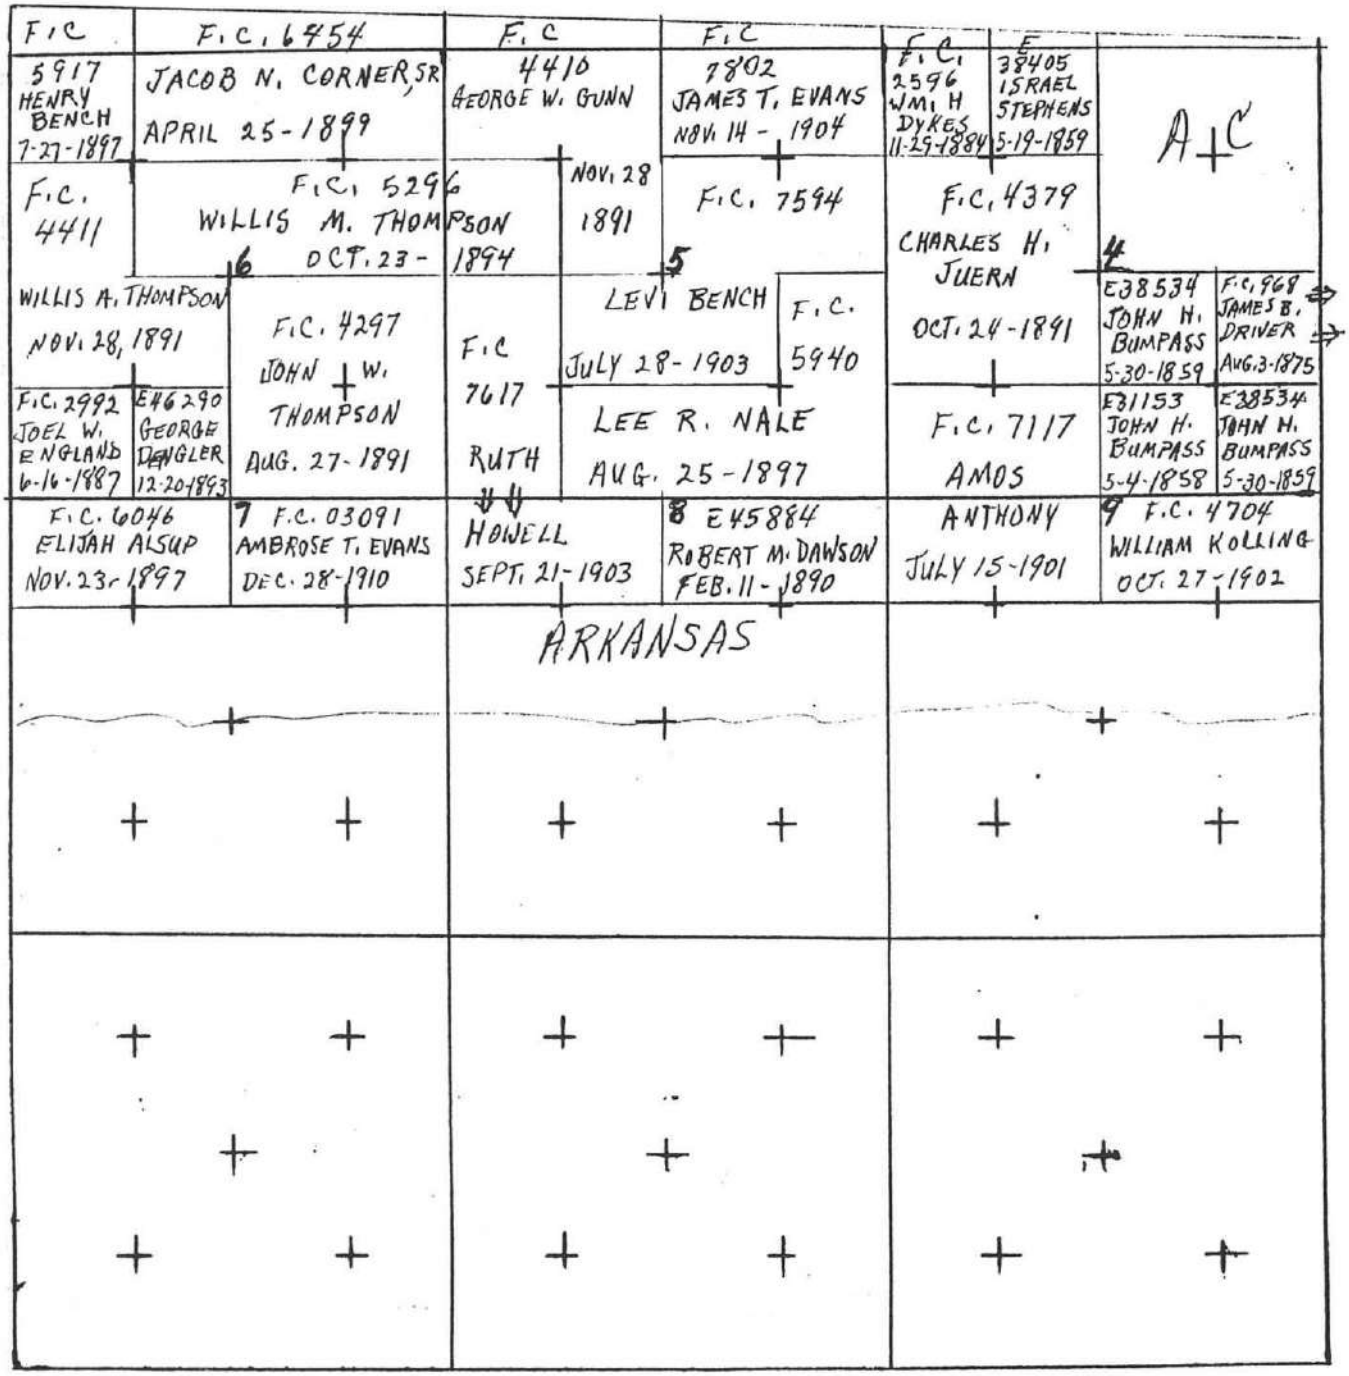

In order to confine the name search to a single section rather than a full page, a page number is followed by a dash and another number to indicate in which section the name appears. Where the location on the page is obvious at a glance, such as lands of the Agricultural College, only the page numbers have been used, separated by commas. When the numbers indicate land in different sections, i.e., 40-1,40-2, this means that at least a part of the owners name appears in each of those sections. It does not mean that his land would not extend into yet another section. It should be easy to determine the boundaries of the land. This was an arbitrary decision.

When errors are found in the index, it would be helpful if they were reported to the South Central Missouri Genealogical Society, West Plains, Missouri, that they might be corrected in the future.
