SURNAMES: WALLS, STAPLES, SHERRELL

I am looking for information on E. & E. Walls that lived in Howell County after 1879. I haven't got a clue as to what the E. and E. are. I got the name from their son Presley's tombstone at Lake Spring Cemetery in Dent County, Missouri. They were from Ohio and had two daughters with them, Mary Etta and Amy and maybe another son. Mr. Walls possibly died near Mountain Grove and might be buried in an unmarked grave. Mrs. Walls (nee Beatman/Beekman) possibly died near Willow Springs and is buried there. Mary Etta Walls married Valentine Sherrell of the Mountain Grove area. Amy Walls married Albert Staples. Both daughters ended up in Shannon County. I would like to find out information on E & E Walls and Valentine Sherrell. Did E & E Walls have other children? Where are they buried? Any current family members still living in the area? About Valentine Sherrell, I think his father's name was George. Other than that I don't really know anything about his family. Here is some other information on these people: Mary Etta Walls was born on August 29, 1862; Amy Walls was born December 7, 1847; Valentine Sherrell (Sherrill) was born on January 16, 1864. Any help would be appreciated.

NAME: Vicki Campbell

E-MAIL: sowic@ktn.net

SURNAMES: BROWER, CLARK/CLARKE, POTTS

My name is Vicki Campbell and since I live in Ketchikan, Alaska, information regarding Howell County, Missouri ancestors is hard to come by! I was excited to find your web site! My grandmother, Ruth Elizabeth Brower Clarke Clark, was born just outside of West Plains on August 7, 1886 to Wesley Brower & Mollie Potts Brower. Wesley Brower had a brother, Tom, who had lost a leg during the Civil War while fighting for the Union Army. Their father was Jacob Brower who was born in Holland in the early 1800's. I know nothing of Wesley & Tom's mother. My great grandmother was Molly Potts Brower, date of birth unknown. She died in 1903 in Denver, Colorado. She was apparently sent home to West Plains for burial in Dripping Springs Cemetery. Mollie's mother was Ruth E. Potts 1830-1915. She is buried in Everett, Washington and that is all that I know of her. I know nothing about Mollie's father. I would be thrilled to get any information. Even whether or not Dripping Springs Cemetery actually exists! Thank you for your time and your web site. Vicki Campbell

SURNAMES: EDMONDSON, DAY

Seeking information on the family of John Quincy EDMONDSON & wife, Mary Ann DAY, who moved from Union Co, GA, to West Plains, Howell Co, after the Civil War. They were counted twice in the 1880 census, both in Salem, Denton Co, & then in Howell Co. "Quince" & Mary Ann were 52, Wm. T. was 13, Lou was 11 and a daughter, Julie Tappan 26 & her daughter, Mary 5 b. MO, were living in his household. Quince bought land SW of West Plains on 26 March 1884, from R.S. Haskins. They probably joined Edmondson or Day relatives already living in the area. Hoping to learn about them and will share data. My g-gf, Richard D. Edmondson m. Eliza Jane Smith in West Plains and moved to Benton Co, AR.
