NAME: Leona Ritchey Dennis

SURNAMES: RITCHEY, BRITTAIN

Looking for any information on William Franklin Ritchey, born 1849. Married Nancy Ann Brittain, born 1853. They married in 1875. They lived, or at least their children did in Howell County. I have most of their descendants and Nancy's predecessors. Where did William Franklin Ritchey come from? This is a big mystery to current family members. Thanks for any help you supply. dennisd@lightspeed.net

NAME: Pat LaCroix

SURNAMES: WILLIAMS

I am researching my paternal grandmother's family name of Williams in Howell County. My grandmother, Elsie Josephine Williams, was one of 10 children born to James Madison and Minnie Emmazet (nee Bessee) Williams. James and Minnie and their family resided in Howell County, MO from about 1905 until about 1918 when they moved to Mervine and Denoya, OK to run dry goods stores in the Oklahoma oil fields. Several of the children stayed in the Howell County area. The children's names were Hiram Taylor, LeRoy, Grace Maude (married Luaver), Ada Ethel (married Zeek and Jones), Elsie (married Blair), Mattie (married Tolliver), Mamie Marie (married Adams), Hubert, Henry, Fred Beverly and Martha Opal (married Rush). I know that LeRoy died in Howell County in 1943 and Freddie died in Howell County in 1988. Looking for anyone with a common tie to this family to contact me. BLAC49@aol.com My address is #2 Summerset Ct., St. Charles, MO 63304-7672.

NAME: Charlotte M. Carrere

SURNAMES: UNDERWOOD, MORROW, DODSON, HARMON, GILLIAM

My mother was Mable P. Underwood, daughter of Dock P. Underwood and Martha Louisa Dodson. My grandfather was the son of Samuel L. Underwood and Martha Caroline Morrow. Both he and his parents were born in McMinn County, TN. Samuel fought on both sides of the war and received a Federal pension. My grandmother was the daughter of Vernon Monroe Dodson and Sarah Elizabeth Dodson. (One great aunt said they were first cousins.) Vernon was born in Campbell County, TN, the son of William and Elizabeth Harmon. Sarah was born in Rhea, the daughter of Joel and Elizabeth Graham. After the war, Vernon and his brother, Jasper, moved to Missouri and Vernon wound up in Howell

County. Have done much research on these families in TN and would like to share what I have found. CCarrere@compuserve.com

SURNAMES: CAMPBELL, BISHOP

I have been researching the Campbell surname for about seven years and have been "stuck" on the same relative for that same length of time. Here is what I have: George B. Campbell, born 1847 in Indiana (possibly Terre Haute, Vigo County); died 1923 Mtn. View, Howell County, MO (no death certificate!) According to census records, his father was born in NC and his mother was born in IL; married to Elizabeth Bishop, born 13 Jan. 1850-1854 in MO (I have found conflicting years.) Their children were:

Robert W. Campbell, born 1871 in MO?

Ada or Ethel Campbell, born 6 Aug. 1883, Camden County, MO; died 6 Sept. 1958, Willow Springs, Howell County, MO

John B. Campbell, born 31 Oct. 1890, Mtn. View, Howell County, MO; died 8 Jan. 1977

Any help will be most appreciated. Dennis Campbell.
